

Image courtesy of Emma Kavanagh,
Mid-West School for the Deaf, Limerick

ARTS
AIN
EDUCATION
Na hEalaíona
san Oideachas

National Arts in Education Portal
Virtual Conference
November 2021
Programme of Events

artsineducation.ie

Welcome Address

Conference Opening Address
with Arts in Education Portal
6pm Monday 15 November
How and Why Dance, Music and Storytelling Might Well Support
Critical Cognitive Development in Children and Youth

Adele Diamond

Professor Adele Diamond, Canada Research Chair of Developmental Cognitive Neuroscience at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, shares insights into the importance of the arts and creativity for children's cognitive development.

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

In Conversation Series

6pm Tuesday 16 November
Demystifying Arts Career Paths

Aoibhie McCarthy

Kate McElroy

Aoibhie McCarthy, Artistic Director of Sample-Studios, will be joined in conversation with artist and tutor Kate McElroy to share their experience of The Cork Creative Careers Programme pilot in schools.

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

6pm Thursday 18 November
Zoom Out: New and Emerging Technologies in Arts Education

Jürgen Simpson

Eibhlin Campbell

Adam Stoneman

How have digital paradigms impacted the experience of the arts and in turn arts education? What does post-Zoom arts education look like and how is this impacting cultural appraisal? Researchers Jürgen Simpson and Adam Stoneman and teacher Eibhlin Campbell consider the rapidly changing nature of art and its relationship to technology, exploring the impact of the digital in arts education.

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

6pm Friday 19 November
Reflections on International Teacher-Artist Partnership (I-TAP-PD)

Jennifer Buggie

Manja Eland

Eirini Marna

Teacher and Teacher-Artist Partnership (TAP) lead facilitator Jennifer Buggie in conversation with Manja Eland from Stichting Kopa, the Netherlands and Eirini Marna from the Hellenic Theatre/Drama & Education Network in Greece share their experience of the International Teacher-Artist Partnership (I-TAP-PD).

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

Documentation Award Series

4pm Wednesday 17 November
'Songs of Ourselves' Participative Song Programme

George Higgs

Noelle Igoe

Portal 2021 Documentation Award recipients composer George Higgs and teacher Noelle Igoe share their experience of the participative song programme 'Songs for Ourselves' with the pupils of Scoil Mhuire, Carrick on Shannon, Co. Leitrim led by The Dock.

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

7pm Wednesday 17 November
'Place' Teacher-Artist Partnership (TAP) Project

Tunde Toth

Alyson Hourigan

Portal 2021 Documentation Award recipients teacher Alyson Hourigan and visual artist Tunde Toth discuss their collaboration with the pupils of Scoil Mhichíl Naofa, Athy, Co. Kildare on this child-led Teacher-Artist Partnership (TAP) project 'Place'.

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

Creative Workshops

11am Saturday 20 November
3pm Sunday 21 November
Imagine, Play, Shoot

Ana Colomer

Ticket Booking for Creative Workshops opens at 12 noon, 26 October

Visual artist Ana Colomer will introduce participants to the basics of stop motion animation using three different techniques. Participants will need to download the free Stop Motion Studio App.

BOOK HERE on Zoom

11am Saturday 20 November
3pm Sunday 21 November
Exploring the Sound Walk

Fiona Linnane

Let's take a sound walk. Composer Fiona Linnane invites participants to explore the nature of sound and active listening in a noisy world through gentle activities and interactive exercises.

BOOK HERE on Zoom

3pm Saturday 20 November
11am Sunday 21 November
When I Put This Scarf On I'm Going To Pretend To Be...

Sarah Fitzgibbon

Joanna Parkes

Drama facilitators Sarah Fitzgibbon and Joanna Parkes will explore the benefits of working in role to enhance pupil's language skills, enabling them to listen, respond and communicate more effectively.

BOOK HERE on Zoom

3pm Saturday 20 November
11am Sunday 21 November
When Reality Ends, Imagination Begins

Daithí Ó Murchú

Creative Clusters Facilitator Daithí Ó Murchú will bring participants on a creative journey to envision and design an artistic, paradise garden with a focus on biodiversity, climate action and environmental citizenship.

BOOK HERE on Zoom

Conference Close

1pm Sunday 21 November

Jennie Guy

Portal Editor Emma Kavanagh will be joined by conference rapporteur Jennie Guy to close the week. Founder and director of Art School, Jennie Guy is a curator, artist, writer and educator who will share her reflections on the week's events and discussions.

BOOK HERE on Zoom & Facebook Live

Image courtesy of
Gillian Boland, Scoil Íde,
Corbally Road, Limerick